

Supporting Implementation of Comprehensive Sexual Health Education (SB 5395)

With nearly 50 years of experience in promoting sexual health and 15 years of advancing comprehensive sexual health education (CSHE) in Washington and across the country, Cardea is well-positioned to support you with implementation of CSHE.

Our Experience

Cardea promotes CSHE through technical assistance and training.

- Working with schools and other stakeholders to select CSHE curriculum
- Training and supporting school administrators, teachers, and other staff on a wide range of evidence-based/informed curriculum
- Assisting schools with parent/caregiver engagement and education
- Supporting schools with adaptation, implementation, and evaluation of selected CSHE curriculum, including skills and techniques to engage youth, provide safe and supportive environments, and build on positive youth development concepts, social and emotional learning, and trauma-informed approaches
- Serving as an ongoing thought partner to sustain CSHE efforts

In 2020, Senate Bill 5395 was passed by the Washington State Legislature, requiring all schools (public and charter) to provide CSHE, defined as recurring instruction in human development and reproduction that is age-appropriate and inclusive of all students, in grades K-12.

Working to Institutionalize Sexuality Education (WISE)

— The WISE initiative supports schools in implementing quality sexual health education to prepare our nation's youth for life-long health and well-being. Cardea serves as the lead agency for WISE California and for the legacy sites in Washington and Texas.

Foundations: Core Skills Training for Sex Education

— In partnership with Answer, Cardea co-authored Foundations, providing core skills to teachers through a cadre of trainers in 19 states. This national model reflects current best practices in sex education facilitation.

Developing Professional Learning Standards for Sexuality Education

— As a member of the national Sex Education Collaborative (SEC) Cardea has assisted in the development of the national Professional Learning Standards for Sex Education.

About Cardea

Cardea is a national organization with a 50-year history of providing training, organizational development, and research and evaluation services to health and human service agencies throughout the U.S. We envision communities where all people, especially those who have been most underserved, have equitable access to quality health and human services. Our mission is to improve organizations' abilities to deliver accessible, high quality, culturally proficient, and compassionate services to their clients, and we believe that organizations thrive by integrating principles of social justice and cultural proficiency into all aspects of their work.
